Description
I recently installed Chromium on Windows 7 and 10 using chocolatey. However, every time I open Chromium I get a yellow warning box stating "Google API keys are missing. Some functionality of Chromium will be disabled". I do not plan on using any Google related services, so I wanted to disable these messages from now on. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Open Control Panel and go to System.• Next go to Advanced system settings. In the Advanced tab, click on the Environment Variables button.• In the System variables section, add the 3 following Environment Variables and values:<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. GOOGLE_API_KEY: no2. GOOGLE_DEFAULT_CLIENT_ID: no3. GOOGLE_DEFAULT_CLIENT_SECRET: no• Log out and log back in for the changes to take effect.
